Joerg Moberg appointed Head of Corporate Communications of BIL

Joerg Moberg, who joined BIL in November 2019, will take over the role of Head of Corporate Communications starting 1 April. He will be responsible for the development and implementation of the bank's overall communications strategy and support the roll out of the bank's strategic plan Create Together 2025. He will report to Karin Scholtes, Head of People, Culture and Communications.

Before joining BIL Joerg Moberg worked for Fidelity International and Deutsche Bank in various roles in external and internal communications on European and national level in Frankfurt, London, Stockholm and Luxembourg. He is a Swedish citizen with German and Luxembourgish roots.

Karin Scholtes said: " We have a very exciting time ahead of us at BIL as we are bringing our new 5 year strategic plan to life, with many great projects ahead. I've had the chance to work with Joerg since he joined BIL in November 2019, and I'm convinced that he is the right person for our ambitious journey forward. He brings a huge experience to the team and we are thrilled to have him on board."
