BIL Suisse further strengthen its leadership team and appoints Fabian Käslin CFO

Banque Internationale à Luxembourg (BIL) has an ambitious growth plan for its international wealth management business which is managed from its two main private banking hubs, Luxembourg and Switzerland.

Based on continuous implementation of the new group strategy and under the leadership of BIL Suisse CEO Hans-Peter Borgh, BIL has already hired a new Head of China Market in Switzerland last year: Roger Gröbli from Credit Suisse who is now building up this future pillar region for the bank.

In line with this ambitious growth plan, BIL Suisse now further renews its Executive Committee and announces the appointment of Fabian Käslin as new Member of the Executive Committee and CFO as of May 1 2020 – replacing Rolf Tresch who is leaving the bank.

Käslin, of Swiss nationality, joined BIL majority shareholder Legend Holdings in early 2019 as an advisor for the strategic investments in the financial sector, with a main focus on BIL. Prior to Legend Holdings, he held several leadership positions at Julius Bär with a strong focus on the international private banking business - where his last position was Deputy COO International. Before Julius Bär, he was working for UBS. Käslin holds a Master in Business Administration, speaks four languages, and has broad leadership experience in Switzerland as well as abroad.
